Mokashi Aromas Pvt. Ltd & ors.... Petitioner

versus

The Dvl.Joint Registrar of Co-operative Societies & ors..... Respondent.

Shri Y.R.Shah for the petitioners
Shri S.S.patwardhan for the respondents.

CORAM; A.P. DESHPANDE, J.
DATED; 6TH JULY, 2007

P.C.;

1. The grievance of the petitioner in this petition is that the Revisional Authoriy, which is ceased of a revision filed by the petiitoner under section 154, directed against the recovery certificate issued under section 101, is not considered the said revision and an application moved therein. It is clear from the record of the petition that as the petitioner had not deposited the anount as required under section 154(2)(A), the Revisional Authority is not entertaining the revision. Deposit of 50% of the amount covered by recovery certificate is a condition precedent for entertaining the revision. Hence there is no merit in the writ petiiton and it is dismissed.

2. If and in case the petitioner deposits the anount as mandated by section 154(2)(A) the revisional authority shall consider the revision on its on merit.
